

sometime and is nineteen now, and he could not get help as it is, he has to go for his help and take them home, and I think it is the best to sell. Old Mr. Shankle has helped him but he has got so he can't help any more.

Your son owes Mr. Shankle $1000.00, does he not?

He owes Mr. Shankle $1000.00 and my mother $1500.00.

What was that for?

He borrowed it to fix his building up and bought a walk-in bar and freezer, and he paid between $1800.00 and $1900.00 for the walk-in bar.

It is his intention to use the proceeds to pay his grandmother and Mr. Shankle?

That is his intention.

By Judge Schnauffer:

Then he has an offer of $4750.00 and actually has in the place in the neighborhood of around $2000.00?

I would say he has, it cost him about $4000.00, and he has used it for four years, I think. He made it all himself.

Filed February 21, 1952